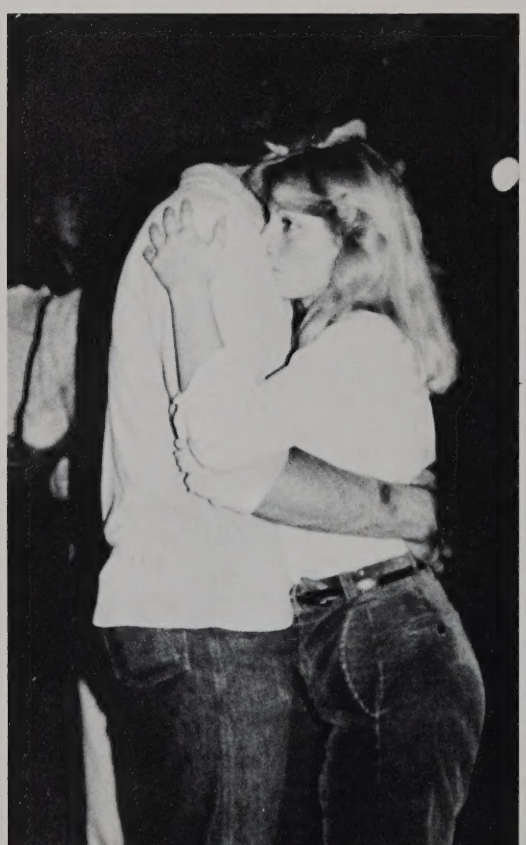
Endicott College

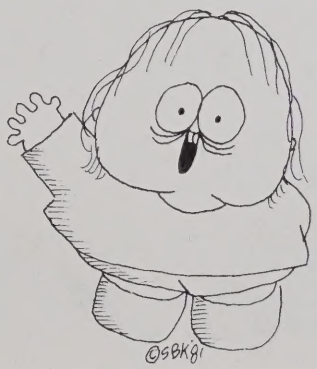
Beverly, Massachusetts

WHY DID YOU

The Endicott College community offers a tremendous diversity of opportunities and challenges for each and every one of us to take advantage of during our two-year experience here on the north shore of Massachusetts. Students are able to test their abilities in many organizations on campus, the Student Government Association, College Work Study programs, intercollegiate athletic teams, and much more.



COME TO ENDICOTT COLLEGE



The professionally geared academic courses and unique fields of study offered at Endicott combined with the beautiful, oceanside campus draw students not only from the New England area, but the midwest, South America, and many European countries as well.

The cartoon character above is Punkins. She is the creation of our copywrited art editor Sarah Kilvert. Punkins will escort us through the book, from sunrise to sunset, freshman orientation to senior graduation.

After the bells toll 8:00 a.m. from College Hall, a patriotic tune continues to ring across campus. At the same time our hands are fumbling in the dark to hit the top of that beeping, buzzing, or music playing alarm clock! Yes, "morning has broken" at Endicott. We walk like zombies to the shower toting our plastic buckets, filled to the rim with toiletries. Inevitably our nice dry towel or warm robe falls into the puddle of water that someone else left behind, thus another day has begun . . .

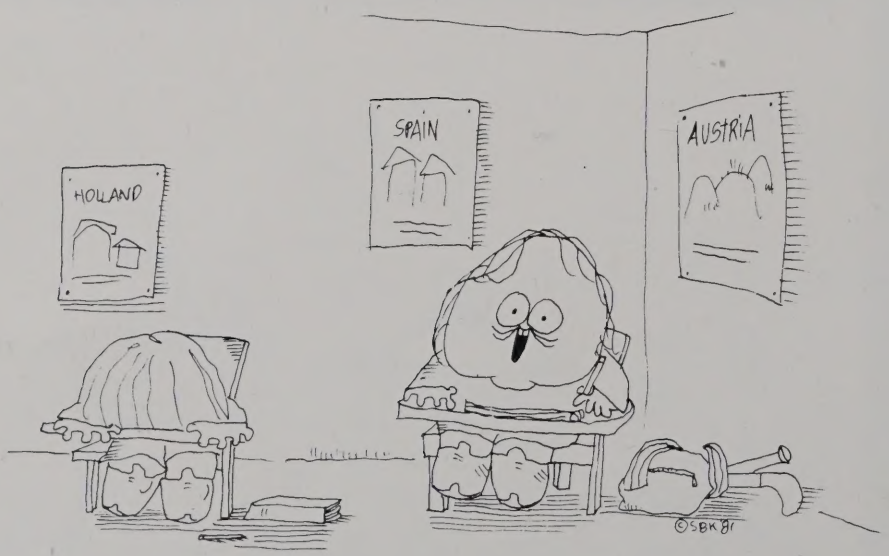
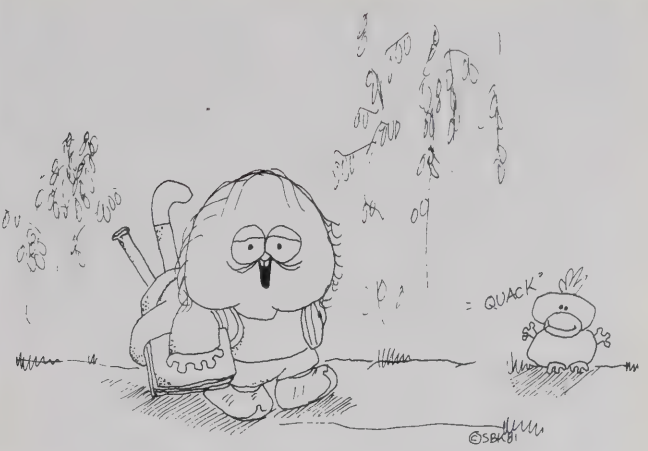
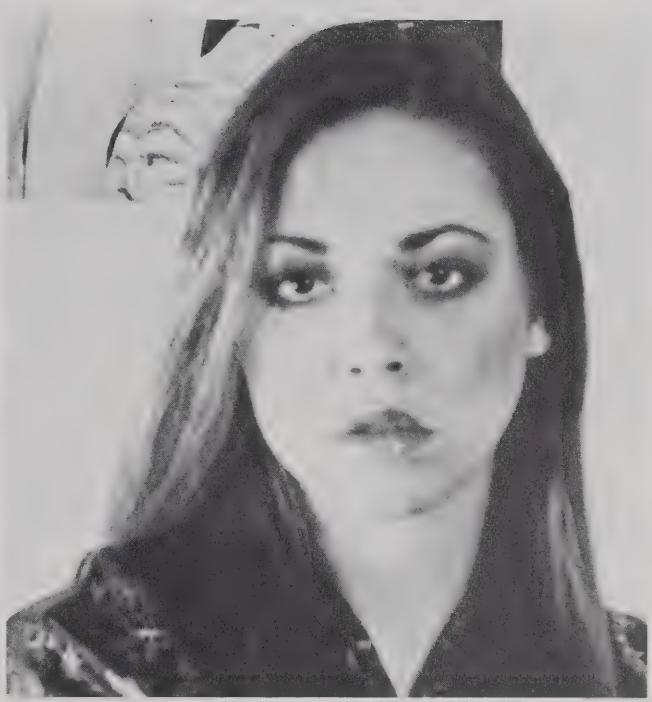
THE MUPPETS
©SBK 81

By midmorning the campus is a bee hive of activity. While most students are attending classes, others can be found at meetings, on field trips, in the science laboratory, at work, or roaming the campus in search of an object to sketch, paint, or draw. And who could forget those two required terms of physical education . . .





= QUACK



Meeting friends at Endicott Center, more commonly referred to as "the Center," for lunch is a memory we all share. Meal time gives us a chance to relax over a cup of coffee or a bowl of ice cream and among other things review the latest happenings on "G.H."! This famed soap opera, General Hospital, was ranked #1 by Endicott students this year with The Guiding Light in the #2 spot. These statistics are not surprising as they follow the nationwide data. Besides watching "soaps" students spend the afternoons studying, doing errands, and going to practice or jogging.

Weekends At Endicott

Weekends provide the students with extra time to do all the things they did not have time to do during the week, whether it be socializing or a research project! Some students can be found visiting friends at other colleges (remember all those "road trips"?), or taking the train into Boston to shop at Faneuil Hall Marketplace or Downtown Crossing. The Student Activities Committee sponsors mixers, special event weekends, and trips to Liberty Tree Mall or to Rockport for a Whale Watch, for example. The Ski Club also sponsors activities for students along with Phi Theta Kappa, International Club among others.

COUNSELING

From The President

To the Class of 1982:

We came to Endicott together, and now you are ready to go on to new experiences with new skills and knowledge and the confidence of achievement.

You have told me that in planning this yearbook you have been searching out the reasons each of you had for coming to college. Let me cite a reason which may be the most important, yet through modesty is often understated: You have the ability to succeed. To develop your talents is as much a need as hunger for food. To know you are using them well is one of the great satisfactions of life. In choosing Endicott, with its strong tradition of woman's career education, you have demonstrated your awareness of the challenges and opportunities you have as women today. Your studies of the past two years should bring you appreciably closer to your goals.

I am happy that you chose Endicott and especially that you came at a time when we could know each other and work together. But this is only the begining! Remember, you have almost 12,000 sister alumnae throughout the world. Here on campus, we will always be ready to help with placement or professional update. Most of all we enjoy welcoming you home. I look forward to hearing from you and seeing you often.

Warm good wishes for all the years ahead.

1981-1982 THEME: THE SHORT STORY: MIRROR OF HUMANITY

I decline to accept the end of man. It is easy enough to say that man is immortal simply because he will endure: that when the last ding-ding of doom has clanged and faded from the last worthless rock ranging tideless in the last red and dying evening, that even then there will still be one more sound: that of his puny inexhaustible voice, still talking, I refuse to accept this.
I believe that man will not merely endure: he will prevail. He is immortal, not because be alone among creatures has an inexhaustible voice, but because he has a soul, a spirit capable of compassion and sacrifice and endurance.

William Faulkner

As I look out
I see my new friends
Those I seem to have known for years, but really only for a few short months
Helping, Caring, Sharing, Joys and Sorrows alike.
We laugh, We cry, We study, We date,
We live . . .
Life is so full of wonderful surprizes
like the new and lifetime friends I now have. Gidget

FOR YOU, LADY

I won't answer my door anymore,
For you, lady.
'Cause I just want to sit in my room
and play my guitar.

For you, lady
I will not sing,
I will not play,
I will not dance.
Silly games of women . . . only for the ladies.

Tower over you all!
Why can't you hear me?
For you and me forever
friends to be . . . pure harmony.

For you, lady
I'd love to sing,
I'd love to play,
I'd love to dance,
Silly games of women . . . only for us
ladies.

Lynn Johnson & Jennifer France

TOWER HALL

REYNOLDS HALL

I've Loved These Days . . . Billy Joel 1976

Now we take our time, so nonchalant
And spend our nights, so bonvivant
We dress our days in silken robes the money comes the money goes
We know it's all a passing phase

We light our lamps for atmosphere
And hang our hopes from chandaliers
We're going wrong we're gaining weight
We're sleeping long and far too late
And so it's time to change our ways
But I've loved these days.

Now as we indulge in things refined
We hide our hearts from harder times
A string of pearls, a foreign car
Oh, we can only go so far
On caviar and Cabinet

We drown our doubts in dry champagne
And sooth our souls with fine cocaine
I don't know why I even care
We'll get so high and get nowehere
We'll have to change our jaded ways
But I've loved these days.

And so, before we end and then begin We'll drink a toast, to how it's been
A few more hours to be complete
A few more times that I can say
I've Loved These Days.

BEST WISHES FROM WINTHROP. GOOD LUCK CLASS OF '821

In Our Hearts

Today's end has opened tomorrow's beginnings
Life seems to be hellos and good-byes,
I'm afraid to say goodbye again
To step out into another new place,
with many new faces
But, we all must remember it's,
"So long and see ya soon!"
In our thoughts we hold all that is good,
And all that is treasured
With this we know that we are never alone
Forever surrounded with loving friends
Friendships are within our hearts, to keep us going
From the easiest times to the most difficult
We are all here to share a piece of ourselves
Some will be near and some will be far
But it's within the heart,
Where we are forever close.

FROM THE EDITORS OF MINGOTIDE

We, the editors of the 1982 Mingotide, would like to thank all of those who patiently worked on this book. Many long hours were spent in preparation and production of this book. We hope in the years to come when you flip through these pages, you will remember all of the people, places, and events at Endicott that were special for us, the class of 1982.
